Parent Guidelines

Boruch Hashem we are committed to providing your son with a quality Chinuch "Al Taharas HaKodesh."

We can only be successful when the Yeshiva and your home share the same values. It is expected that our Talmidim are being raised Frum and Chassidish. We place a strong emphasis on your son having Chassidishe friends and Midos Tovos. In addition, we want that his speech, reading material and even the music he listens to are all fitting for a Chassidishe boy.

His day should begin with Negel Vasser at his bedside and end with Kriyas Shema before retiring at a bedtime suitable for his age. This includes following Halacha in accordance with the Shulchan Aruch and exemplifying the standard of a Lubavitcher Chossid. (Dress Code, haircut, etc..)

Talmidim who are exposed to the following * have no place in our Yeshiva:

Television, secular videos, secular DVDs, internet, Non Religious books, newspapers, magazines and music (*Both in the home or elsewhere)

Our goal is to provide our students with the best environment, to enable them to reach their highest potential. It is out of loyalty to our Talmidim that we must be strongly committed to below policies that they may receive the quality education they so deserve.

- Mothers wear a full Sheitel at all times outside of the home
- Length of Clothing following the Halachos of Tznius - collarbone elbows
- Stockings must be worn.
- No slits.
- Skirts worn below the knee.
- Fathers must have a full untouched beard and dress as befitting a Chossid of the Rebbe MH"M.

We appreciate your adherence to the policies mentioned above and we hope to welcome you in to our school. Moshiach NOW!!

We as parents of the student _____'ש' accept and agree to all of the above. We agree that if we do not keep to all of the above, the school has the right at any time to expel our son(s) indefinitely.
